Mrs. Blanche Ashcraft, of Guyville, Ohio, says: "For nine years, I was a constant sufferer from womanly trouble. Had severe pains in my head and sides, and was very nervous. At times, could scarcely walk across the floor. After taking ten bottles of Cardul, am now enjoying good health. Cardul

BELL PHONES:

Office 94
Residence 47
HAYTI, MISSOURI

1916-1917.

The Herald wishes to its readers a very, very prosperous New Year.

The year 1916 was undoubtedly the best business year for the United States in the history of our great Republic. In spite of the yells of the calamity howlers.

Think of it! One billion dollar business for the railroads of our country in 1916, and all this in the face of the hardest political fight in history. Gradually things are settling back to normal, and our friends are going to repent for their wickedness.

No wedding bell this Sunday—they're New Year bells—proclaiming to the world their thanks for the prosperous and peaceful year bestowed on the people of the United States in 1916, and appealing for a like prosperity in 1917.

The East Prairie Eagle, a leading newspaper of Mississippi county, last week changed hands, being sold completely by Frank Lee, who has given that paper able management. David Bright, founder of the paper became the old-new owner. Mr. Bright, we understand is a good newspaper man, and the Herald extends New Year greetings, hoping that his acquirement will be one of prosperity.

Braggadocio News

Hallet Hamilton has sold his cold drink stand and grocery store to James Dye and will leave the first of the year for Memphis, Tenn., where he goes on the mounted police force.

Carl Long of the Cape Normal and Luther Curtner of the Caruthersville High School are spending the holidays with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cooper of Ellwood, Tenn., are visiting Mrs.
Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Jno. Morgan.

W. H. Denton and wife, and Dr. Leve Denton and wife took dinner Monday with Dr. Right Denton at Micola.

Miss Nola Grinstead, who is teaching at Carleton, is spending the week with homefolks.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Robinson was buried at the Culp Cemetery December 12th.

Wilce Curtner has bought the J. H. Grinstead house that was occupied by H. Hamilton and will move there Jan. 1st.

T. C. Culp is building a lumber shed for himself near the depot.
Jno. Morgan gave a Christmas celebration to a host of relatives and friends.

The death angel visited the home of A. C. Long Friday evening and claimed as its victim his beloved wife, Sallie Bray Long.
She was a faithful member of the Baptist Church, a loving wife and a kind mother. She leaves a mother, husband and three small children, to mourn her departure.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the people of Hayti for their kindness in the hour of grief, caused by the death of Mrs. Lena Graham. May God's richest blessings fall upon each of you.
CHAS. T. GRAHAM,
Mrs. ARTIE HAYES and Family.

FIND REAL TREASURE ISLANDS

A Few Seekers After Hidden Gold Have Met With Success.

There are quite a number of islands scattered about the globe whereon buried treasure exists. And people are always trying to find it.
Quite a score of attempts have been made, for instance, to unearth the treasure alleged to be buried on Cocos island. Yet so far the adventurers have reaped no reward for their toil. Fully $50,000 has been wasted, again, in futile attempts to recover the "pirates' hoard" reported to be hidden near the lip of the crater of an active—very active—volcano on Pagan island, in the Ladrone group.

Still, as a setoff against many failures, there have been some few successes, remarks London Tit-Bits.
There is no doubt, for instance, that a Liverpool sailor named John Adams unearthed treasure to the value of between £150,000 and £200,- 000 on Auckland island some years back; nor that William Watson, a shepherd, recovered in 1868 nearly a ton of gold that had been hidden on one of the Queen Charlotte islands.
Likewise, two runaway seamen, named Handley and Cross, successfully located and dug up a valuable hoard on Oak island, off the coast of Nova Scotia, and this after many others had failed.

CHARITY

"We're founding a home for stray dogs where they can be washed and fed and made comfortable. Won't you subscribe?"

"Can't do it. I've put all my money in a fur rug asylum for homeless fleas that are evicted from your dogs."

15,000,000 ACRES IRRIGATED.

The area under irrigation in the United States at present is estimated at 15,000,000 acres, with the possibility in time of increasing this to 50,000,000 acres, states the committee on statistics and standards of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The total value of crops raised on irrigated land was $181,617,496 in 1909. Practically all agricultural products can be raised more successfully on irrigated lands than on those which are not irrigated, it is stated.

HIS FIRST OFFENSE.

"Prisoner, you are accused of stealing a watch. Is this your first offense?"

"Yes, your honor."

"But it seems to me I remember sentencing you not more than a year ago."

"Yes, your honor, but it wasn't a watch that time. It was a diamond pin."

A QUESTION.

"What is this?"
"An alligator for you. He will make a nice pet. You have to feed him only once every six months.
His next feeding time will be six months from now."

"And if I forget to feed him that time, what happens?"

QUICK TO ANSWER.

Teacher—Who can tell me the meaning of a "round robin?" Bright Boy—Please, miss, it's what that burglar was doin' last night when they nabbed him.

ART ENDEAVORS.

"Art should imitate nature."
"True. The great artist of our time will be the man who can make an imitation egg that can be used as a breakfast food."

ITS ENDURANCE.

"Does your wife always insist on having the last word?"
"Yes, and it lasts all right, too."

Residence for Sale.

lots, in Kohn addition, well located.

That Kept Her in the Country.

Amboy, Ill.—Mary Smith, a poor Chi-death, has grown tired of the bargain and will return to Chicago.
